

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

SUPREME GRAND AND ROYAL CHAPTER.

To all the Companions of that Exalted, and Supreme Degree of Masonry,

STYLED

The Royal Arch,

HEALTH, PEACE, AND GOODWILL.

Whereas, our Grand and Royal Chapter, being the Grand Lodge of this Supreme Degree, and having full Power, when in Chapter assembled, to issue, publish, and make known, to all our loving Companions, whatever may contribute to their more easy acquisition of true Masonic Knowledge, not inconsistent with its general Laws, and also to make such Laws and Regulations, and to constitute and appoint any Officer or Officers from time to time, which may appear necessary to promote the more perfect Government of our Supreme Degree of Masonry; We therefore, the most Excellent and Excellent Grand Officers, Principals and Past Principals and Companions, for that purpose in full Chapter assembled, do make known the following Regulations of the Order.

JOHN DOYLE, D. G. M. H.
JOHN RAMSBOTTOM J.

That no motion for the repeal or alteration of any existing Law, or for the introduction of a new one shall be made, without notice being given in a previous Grand Chapter, or transmitted to the Grand Scribes, at least three weeks previous to the meeting of the Grand Chapter, in order to its being inserted in the Summonses to the Grand Officers and Principals of Chapters.

IX.

No motion on a new subject shall be made, nor any new matter entered upon after eleven o'clock at night.

GRAND SUPERINTENDANTS

OF PROVINCES.

For the better government of the Chapters held at a distance from the Metropolis, Superintendants may be appointed over the several Provinces in which Chapters shall be held.

The Grand Superintendants are empowered to appoint Provincial Grand Officers, and to hold Provincial Grand Chapters, whenever they shall think expedient so to do. They are also empowered to visit the several subordinate Chapters in their district, to see that the Laws and Regulations of the Grand Chapter are observed; and are to enquire into irregularities, and hear and determine all complaints, and their decision shall be final, unless an appeal shall be made therefrom to the Grand Chapter; and to this end they may summon the Officers and Companions of any Chapter to attend them, and to produce the Charter and Books of the Chapter.

The Provincial Grand Chapter shall consist of the Present and Past Officers, being subscribing Members to some Chapter in the Province, and the Principals and past Principals of the several subordinate Chapters, so long as they continue subscribing Members to their respective Chapters.

PRIVATE CHAPTERS.

That every Chapter shall be attached to some warranted Lodge, and the rank or precedence of the several Chapters, shall be determined according to the priority of the Lodges, to which they may be respectively attached.

That no Lodge hereafter shall be authorised to form or hold a Chapter, unless it has previously obtained a Charter from the Grand Chapter.—The mode of application to be by petition, signed by nine regular and registered Royal Arch Masons, specifying the place where such Lodge meets, and the time when such Chapter is proposed to be holden, with the names of the three intended Principals.

In a province for which a Superintendant is appointed, the petition must first be transmitted to him for his recommendation or opinion. That a fee of five guineas be paid for such Charter of constitution.

According to the ancient custom, a complete Chapter of this order of Masonry, consists of the three Principals who, when in Chapter assembled, are to be considered conjunctly as the Master, and each severally as a Master, two scribes, three sojourners, and seventy-two others as a council, and no regular Chapter can consist of more, but any number may be exalted and received as companions, though not to hold the staff of office, or be considered as counsellors, when more than that number are present.

That all officers be elected annually; such as are properly acquainted with our statutes and constitutions, and who, from their merit and abilities are likely to do honor to the Society, being most eligible.

That the mode of election be by ballot; for the office of Z first, and the others in succession, allowing the principal sojourner to appoint his assistants; and the officers thus elected and appointed shall be invested and inducted accordingly. If there shall be two or more of the highest number, the M. E. Z. shall have the casting vote, or he may order a new ballot at his discretion.

That the officers and companions, whilst in Chapter, shall wear the respective insignia of the order, according to their rank.

That, as soon as the Chapter is opened, the minutes of the last Chapter are to be read by one of the scribes, and then put for confirmation.

That no Chapter, when convened, shall proceed to exalt any candidate into the order, unless nine regular Royal Arch Masons be present.

The Cash or Treasurers account of the Chapter shall be kept distinct and separate from that of the Lodge to which the Chapter is attached.

Every Chapter, shall, at least once in each year, make a return to the grand scribes, specifying the names, ages, professions, and the dates of exaltation of the companions exalted, together with the numbers of the lodges to which they belong: the registering fees to be remitted at the same time. And if any companion exalted in foreign parts, (and whose name, therefore, is not previously registered in the books of the Grand Chapter) join a Chapter as a member, his name, age, profession, and lodge shall be returned, and the same fee paid as if he had been exalted in the Chapter he may so join. The names also of all companions who may join from any other Chapter must be returned, and the Chapter iu which they were exalted, specified.

Every Chapter shall have power to make such by-laws as to them shall seem meet for their own private government, provided they be not incompatible with the general laws of the craft, or the general statutes, enacted by the Grand Chapter, and which by-laws shall be fairly transcribed in a book to be kept for that purpose, and a copy thereof shall be sent to the Grand Scribes.

Every Chapter shall annually as soon as their new officers are appointed and invested transmit their names and rank to the Grand Scribes.

Every Chapter shall strictly conform to the statutes respecting the proposition and admission of members and exaltation.

No Chapter shall be removed from one house to another without notice being given to all the members thereof in the summons of the intention to propose such a measure, nor unless the majority of the members present at the meeting when such proposal is made shall approve thereof. Nor shall a Chapter be moved from one town or place to another without the consent of the Grand Chapter.

No Chapter shall form any public Masonic procession without a dispensation for that purpose from one of the Grand Principals or the Grand Superintendant of the province. No Chapter shall exclude any member thereof without giving him due notice of the charge preferred against him, and of the time appointed for its consideration. The name of every companion excluded, together with the cause for his exclusion, shall be sent to the Grand Scribes.

If a Chapter be dissolved, the charter thereof shall be delivered up to the Grand Chapter, and shall not on any account be transferred without the consent of that body; and if the charter of a Chapter be sold or procured by any other means than through the regular channel of petition to the Grand Chapter, such charter shall be forfeited and the Chapter erased.

The register fee to the Grand Chapter for brethren exalted shall be seven shillings and sixpence; and for a companion joining a Chapter, his name being previously registered, two shillings and sixpence.

That Chapters shall be subject to erasure and forfeiture of the charter of constitution in any of the following cases, viz.

Omitting to hold a meeting of the Chapter for the space of two years.

Neglecting to make a return of the Principals and Officers of the Chapter, as specified in the foregoing law.

Neglecting to register annually the names of all companions exalted in, and of those who have joined the chapter.

But no Chapter shall be erased until the Principals thereof shall have been duly summoned to shew cause to the Grand Chapter why such Chapter should not be erased.

CANDIDATES, &c.

That to this order none ought to be admitted but men of the best character and education, open, generous, of liberal sentiment and real philanthropists, who have passed through the probationary degrees of masonry, have presided as masters, been duly proposed, recommended by two or more companions of the Chapter, balloted for and approved; the recommendation (unless on particular occasions) to be at least one Chapter previous to the ballot. The brother to be not less than twenty-three years of age at the time of exaltation, but none to be admitted if, on the ballot, there appear more than two negatives.

No mason shall be exalted to this sublime degree unless he has been a Master mason for twelve calendar months at least; and to prove this fact the following testimonial shall be produced from the lodge of which the candidate is a member, viz.

To the Principals of Chapter.

Brother having signified his wish to be exalted to the order of the Royal Arch, we do hereby certify, that he hath been a Master Mason for the space of twelve calendar months, and duly registered in the books of the Grand Lodge for that period; and that he hath while a member of our lodge, conducted himself as a worthy Brother.

Signed in open lodge, this day of W.M.

S. W.

J. W.

Sec.

That instead of the foregoing certificate the Chapter may receive the Brother's Grand Lodge certificate, in proof of his having been twelve months a Master Mason, provided he be at the time a subscribing Member to some regular Lodge. The regulation, as to the individual being a subscribing member, however, is not intended to apply to a foreign brother, initiated abroad who may be in possession of proper certificates.

That in cases where either of such certificates cannot be obtained, the brother desirous to be exalted, may apply, through the Grand Scribes, to any one of the three Principals for a dispensation; and if the Grand Principal, to whom the application be made, shall be satisfied that the circumstances justify a deviation from the preceding regulation, he may grant a dispensation accordingly, which shall be a sufficient warrant to the Chapter to exalt the brother, provided he be eligible in other respects.

That when any brother is proposed for exaltation, or a companion to join the Chapter, notice thereof shall be given to every member of the Chapter in the summons, at least six days previous to the meeting at which the ballot is to be taken, specifying the name of the candidate, his residence, profession, and Lodge or Chapter.

Any companion exalted in a Chapter thereby becomes a member without any further proposition or ballot, provided he express his wish to that effect on the day of his exaltation:

No person shall under any pretence be exalted for a less sum than three guineas, which sum may include the registering fee to the Grand Chapter.

CERTIFICATE.

All applications for Grand Chapter certificates must be made to the Grand Scribes, and if the name of the companion wishing for a certificate has not been previously registered, the money payable on registration must be transmitted at the same time, as no certificate can, on any account, be issued until the companion be registered.

The Grand Chapter certificate shall be seven shilling and sixpence.

No certificate shall be issued to any companion if it shall appear that he has been exalted irregularly or contrary to the laws specified relative to the proposing and admission of candidates.

APRON.

To be of white lamb skin from 14 to 16 inches wide, and from 12 to 14 inches deep, with an indented crimson and purple border, 2 inches wide; the perpendicular lines in the drawing representing the crimson, and the horizontal lines the purple; the border of the fall or flap to be only one inch wide, in the centre of the flap a triangle of white silk or satin, surrounded with a gold cord, and within the triangle the figure as in the pattern embroidered in gold spangles, the lining and strings of the apron to be white silk, the ends of the strings may be ornamented with silver fringe.

The triangle on the flap, the lining and strings of the apron for Present and Past Principals of private Chapters to be crimson silk; and for Present and Past Officers of the Supreme Grand Chapter, purple silk; the Present and Past Officers of the Grand Chapter, and Present and Past Principals of Private Chapters, may wear gold fringe at the end of the strings, instead of silver fringe, no other ornament shall be worn upon the apron; except that Officers and Past Officers of Chapters may have the emblem of their Office embroidered in the centre of their aprons, the Principals and Past Principals in gold, all other Officers or Past Officers in silver.

The COLLARS, &c.

The Jewel of Office worn by the several Officers of the Grand Chapter, and by Grand Superintendants of Provinces to be suspended by a broad collar of three colours, viz. purple, scarlet and pale blue.

The Jewel of Office worn by the Principals and Officers, and also by Past Principals of Subordinate Chapters, to be suspended by a broad crimson collar.

The Medal of the order to be worn on the left breast, appended according to the rank of the Companion by a narrow ribbon as follows.

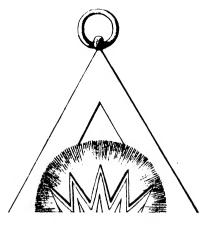

Present and Past Officers of the Grand Chapter and Provincial Grand Superintendants, tricolored corresponding with the collar.

The Principals and Past Principals, of all subordinate Chapters, crimson, corresponding with the collar.

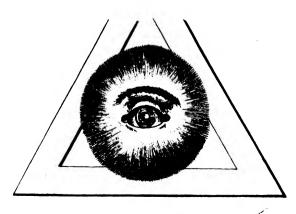

The other Officers of Subordinate Chapters and all other Companions white.

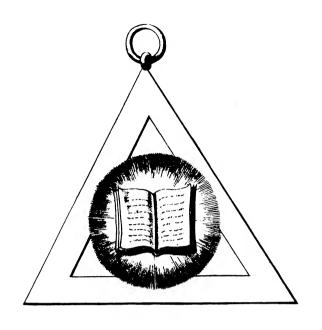

The SASH.

All Companions are to wear the usual sash of the order with silk fringe at the ends, except, that all present and Past Officers of the Grand Chapter, and Present and Past Principals of Private Chapters may wear gold fringe instead of silk.

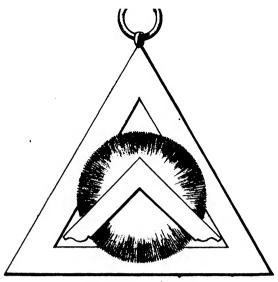

The following are drawings of the Jewels for Private Chapters, as approved and ordered by the Supreme Grand Chapter; and which are to be strictly attended to, whenever Chapters may think it necessary to provide new ones.
